

Renée Kurilla has a background in animation and design. She has illustrated more than 45 books in the past decade, with more on the way. She lives near Boston with her husband, daughter, and a super-cute tabby cat. Her author-illustrator debut, One Springy Singy Day! (Abrams), will release in 2021.

“THE PERFECT STORY would allow me to create a whole world for the characters to live in, including clothes, cute decorations, and interesting living spaces. I imagine it as both funny and charming—like Busy, Busy World meets Wind in the Willows.”
