

Emanuel Wiemans is a Dutch author-illustrator, animator, and storyboard artist who has illustrated over 20 children's books. When he's not drawing or writing, Emanuel loves reading graphic novels, playing jazz, and restoring vintage Vespas. He lives with his wife and two children in the Netherlands.

I'M DRAWN TO funny projects that are also a bit scary, and I'm immediately drawn to underdog stories. I love sequential art and working in different styles and techniques. I like to let the story inspire a specific style or approach.
