

Madison Safer is happiest in a forest full of mushrooms. She is inspired by Russian folk art, quilt patterns, and the warmth of a fire after a very cold day. After receiving her BFA in illustration studies from Montserrat College of Art, she settled in the sleepy hills of New Hampshire.

“MY IDEAL CHILDREN’S BOOK TO ILLUSTRATE would be whimsical and engaging with an educational twist, like Frog and Toad Are Friends meets Over and Under the Snow.”

