

Lucas Elliott is an Alaskan-based illustrator and comic artist. He has worked on comics and character design, while also teaching illustration and graphic design at the local university. He is a fan of four things: coffee, pizza, his dog, and a good story. Not necessarily in that order. YEAH!

“ I LOVE drawing characters and stories that are full of expression and make people laugh. Whether it is a sci-fi adventure, a cooking competition, or just the best slumber party ever, it has to be fun and full of feeling. ”
