

Darla Okada is an illustrator and comic artist based in Colorado. When she's not working at her local library you can find her developing her next graphic novel, building up layers on a new painting, or wishing she had a pet dragon.

“ I HAVE a soft spot for cuddly animals, stories about friendship, and stories with headstrong characters. Mix in a magical realism element or mystery and I'm there! ”

