

Lisa Chow followed her passion for art and spent years running craft fairs, hosting workshops, and designing products. When not creating in her Houston bungalow, Lisa can be found watching old sitcoms with her husband, crafting with her two daughters, and reading to the cat.

“ I LOVE quirky characters, clever humor, and stories with twists and turns. A mystery where readers need to sleuth through pictures for clues would be a dream to illustrate! ”

