

MAGGIE EDKINS WILLIS grew up in Missouri and Maine. She designed books in-house for seven years before becoming a full-time author/illustrator. Her debut graphic novel, Smaller Sister, was an ALSC Notable Children's Book of 2023 and an SLJ Best Book of the Year. Maggie lives in Princeton, New Jersey. She is a mom, a runner, and a football fan. She has a small, silly dog with very serious eyebrows named Moose.

I'D LOVE TO ILLUSTRATE something dreamy set in Maine, a plucky chapter book or young graphic novel series, or the next Amelia's Notebook.
