

Breanna Carzoo is an illustrator whose love of telling stories led her to a degree in computer animation. She creates illustrations with cut paper collage and mixed media. Breanna is fascinated by human emotions and using metaphors to better understand the world and ourselves. Her author-illustrator debut, LOU (HarperCollins), publishes July 2022.

“ I AM DRAWN to irresistible and misunderstood characters. Stories in the social-emotional space are of particular interest to me! I love creating big, bold and clear illustrations that are alive with humor and personality. ”
